

MUNDO MAYA

COPAN RUINS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Copan Mayan Site

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Contact:
IHAH
(+504) 2222-1468

Discovered in 1570, the ruins of Copan; one of the most important sites of the Mayan civilization, were only excavated in the 19th century and declared World Heritage by UNESCO in 1980.

COPAN RUINS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

El Puente Archaeological Park

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Contact:

(+504) 2661-3423

El Puente Archaeological Park: 15 minutes from La Entrada and 60 kilometers from the Copán Ruinas Archaeological Park; El Puente is a 22 square kilometer park. Built around 570 AD. C. as a satellite city of Copán to control the trade routes to central Honduras. After the collapse of Copán, it is considered the second most important city of the Mayan culture.

Sculpture Museum

Monday to Sunday
9:00 am - 5:00 pm

Contact:

IHAH
(+504) 2222-1468

It houses original pieces found at the Mayan archaeological site; steles, hieroglyphics, sculptures, Altar Q, and a replica of the Rosalila Temple, among other pieces of Mayan interest.

Las Sepulturas

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Contact:

IHAH
(+504) 2222-1468

Located northeast of the Archaeological Site, Las Sepulturas, which is actually a residential group members of the elite of Copán lived, the Casa del Escribano or Casa de los Bacabs stands out, and other residences that have fine architecture, facades with mosaic reliefs, and benches with reliefs and inscriptions.

Arqueologic Museum

Monday to Sunday
9:00 am - 5:00 pm

Contact:

IHAH
(+504) 2222-1468

The artistic quality of the mosaic sculptures, the altars, the three-dimensional sculptures carved in stone, its architecture, and above all the Hieroglyphic Staircase, where the most extensive text in the entire Mayan area is engraved in stone.

COPAN RUINS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Luna Jaguar Spa

Monday to Sunday
2:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Contact:
Ventas
(+504) 9706-5995
Advance reservation

It is divided into two main areas. A green area with pools of medium-temperature thermal water called Popol Nah and an area where the thermal water sources are located, called SPA Acropolis, it also counts with natural trails in the middle of the jungle.

Macaw Mountain

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Contact:
(+504) 2651-4245

Diversity in multifaceted ecotourism, located on ten acres of forest in a valley crossed by a stream, just a 10-minute drive from the central park of Copán Ruinas. Place full of birds, endemic plants, and endemic trees.

The Sunflower Walk

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Contact:
(+504) 3355-7467

Sunflower lovers have a new space to admire their beauty, located in the community "La Estanzuela" 4 kilometers from Copan Ruins.

Tea and Chocolate Place

Monday to Sunday
2:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Contact:
(+504) 9805-6633

It is an educational center where you can learn about native medicinal plants and environmental issues, such as the grave situation that the entire Mayan World faces, soil degradation, and erosion, just 14 minutes from the Center of Copan Ruins.

COPAN RUINS TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Mayan Hill Butterfly Garden

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 4:00 pm

Contact:

(+504) 9491-6062

It is a beautiful botanical garden in Copán, where there are more than 25 species of butterflies, you can see the spectacle that they offer when flying freely through the garden, in turn, knowing in detail the life cycle of these species and the breeding program.

Canopy Copan Ruins

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Contact:

(+504) 9519-6789

This tour includes 16 zip lines through the mountains northeast of Copán and is located on the way to Bird Park, Macaw Mountain, and Hot Springs.

Hacienda San Lucas

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 9:00 pm

Contact:

(+504) 9878-9871

It offers mountain views, a restaurant, security service throughout the day, a bar, a garden, a solarium, and an outdoor fireplace. open air, WiFi, air conditioning, seating, and/or dining area, the property serves a continental breakfast, American or vegetarian.

Finca Santa Isabel

Monday to Sunday
8:00 am - 1:00 pm

Contact:

(+504) 9941-2909
Advance reservation

Destination full of nature, where you can observe the fauna of the tropical jungle. During the tour, you will taste their exquisite high-altitude coffee and its delicious aroma and flavor. In addition, on the tour, you can also enjoy beautiful birds, butterflies, plants, trees and even observe some animals such as the toucan and the surprising macaws.